GENTLEMEN.—In offering myself as a Candidate for the honor of representing this District in the next Parliament, I hope to receive at the approaching Election, the support of such of the Electors as may coincide with me in political opinions. My long residence in the Islands has made me intimately acquainted with the characters of their Native Rulers, and their relative position with the constantly increasing Foreign Population, the necessity of whose being represented in Parliament is daily becoming more apparent; to such of ment is daily becoming more apparent; to such of them as are qualified to vote for a Representative, I would state, that, with a loyal determination to support the King and his Government, the principles I advocate are those of perfect tolerance in religious opinions, political freedom both for Na.
